

Fireside Chat On Canyon Road Dec 2, 3-6pm with author Jill G. Hall at Martinez Studio:Santa Fe

Meet and greet Jill G. Hall author of the award-winning Anne McFarland Series at Martinez Studio, Santa Fe. The Black Velvet Coat, The Silver Shoes, and The Green Lace Corset are dual timeline novels about women searching for their place in the world connected by vintage finds. Hall also creates whimsical mosaics and assemblages using found objects like Anne in her stories. www.jillghall.com.

You can find Martinez Studio at 223 1/2 Canyon Road, just off Paseo De Peralta. Born of happenstance during the chaotic nature of 2020, the gallery is one of three locations showcasing the decades long collaborative work of master weaver Wence Martinez and abstract artist Sandra Martinez.

One of the principal artists, Sandra Martinez, painter/designer will also be on hand to discuss her symbolist works on paper and weaving designs as part of her 30 year collaboration with Master Zapotec weaver Wence (Wenceslao) Martinez.

Their work resides in the permanent collections of the Smithsonian National Museum of the Native American, Washington D.C., National Museum of Mexican Art, Chicago, Museum of Wisconsin Art, West Bend among others. Named United States Artists Fellows in Craft 2018
